For hours I noticed him through the heat and crush of dancers. Tonight is special somehow; the music is quick and light and the dancers tireless. Suddenly, like the cessation of rain as the sun streams through the clouds, the strains of the sweetest song I've ever heard blooms into the room. It is then that I see him approach. I lift my hand to his, and as we touch, I know this dance will never end. Through the simple passages of this lovely tune we turn and turn, echoing the cadence of that first exhilarating moment. Breathless, almost afraid to look into his face, I lift my eyes to his and I am stunned to see that his smile, his sparkling eyes answer me to perfection. He knows too. And at this moment in each other's arms, time stops — and then begins all over again.
